LEAVE

AMENDMENT OF THE ANNUAL AND SICK LEAVE ACT

1. Public Law 102, 83rd Congress, amending the Annual and Sick Leave Act of 1951, has made changes in maximum leave accumulations, in the dates of the leave year, in lump-sum payments for leave, in the transfer of leave, and in the coverage of the Annual and Sick Leave Act. This amendment has also repealed the so-called Thomas rider which required the use of all annual leave earned in any leave year by 30 June of the succeeding year.

2. Specific changes are outlined in the attached question and answer material. These changes have also been incorporated in Regulation [] Leave, which is scheduled for publication in the near future. In the interim, provisions of CIA Regulation [] Time, Leave, and Pay, which are in conflict with these changes are modified accordingly.
